

News from The Kodja Place

Gina Williams and Guy Ghouse

What an absolute pleasure it was to host Gina and Guy on Monday. The 2 school workshops they delivered were wonderful with everyone entering into the spirit and joining in vigorously as you will see from the photos below. None of us have been able to get their iconic song Wanju out of our heads.

There were 2 shows, one for the Pre-Primary to Year 3 and the second for Years 4-6. Both schools combined and visited Kodja Place. The temperature was perfect, if a little chilly for the first session, but the duo quickly warmed the children (and teachers) up with action packed songs such as Head and Shoulders. The children all embraced the Noongar words they learnt and could be heard practicing them as they left.

We wish to thank our sponsors Rotary, Renew Op-Shop, Apex and AFRGRI who provided the sponsorship for the event and covered all the costs involved. We simply could not do things on a free basis both for and in our local community without their incredibly generous support.

We are hoping to attract other highly acclaimed artists from the world of music, film and dance to Kodja Place so that we can all enjoy them without having to travel to Perth.

Promoting our Local Designers

Come and visit Kodja Place and come and check out some of our amazing local designers. We have a wide selection of local produce from Nougat, Olive Oil, Dukkah and Honey to locally made jewellery, scented candles, embroidered towels, beautiful clocks, greeting cards and note pads, paintings, soaps, jams and chutneys. If you haven't been into Kodja Place for a while come and say hello and discover our re-vamped shop for yourself.

We will be profiling our designers over the coming weeks.

Mosaicking – Final Call

Saturday 25th March 10am – 3pm

We now have 11 people and can accommodate a few more if you haven't quite got around to enrolling in this not to be missed class. The majority of people who are trying this taster class are completely new to mosaicking so please do not worry. We are meeting in Mary's garden at 9am to see her fabulous mosaics for some last minute inspiration, or look on Pinterest or Instagram for something that you can do and change slightly to make your own design.

You will come home with a 30 x 30cm mosaic tile, or bring along a project that you fancy, but you may not have time to complete it. The tile, tiles and tools will all be provided and you are welcome to bring along anything that you feel you can incorporate such as broken china, jewellery or interesting bits and pieces.

The cost is $90 per person. To secure your spot, phone Kristel on (08) 9831 0500

Long Table Dinner, Taste Great Southern Saturday 13 May 5 – 10pm

Now this is something you REALLY DO NOT want to miss!

This is Kojonup's first ever entry into the Taste Great Southern Festival and will feature Kojonup's local home grown, world class produce from the Shire's farms and outstanding local producers and entrepreneurs.
